PART I

Identity Architecture

The structure of self precedes the structure of destiny.

Card 4 — Sutra I: Structural Personality Core

The foundational disposition governing instinct, initiative, restraint, and endurance. This Sutra isolates the enduring behavioural axis around which decisions revolve and identity stabilizes.

Card 5 — Sutra II: Cognitive Architecture

The pattern by which perception transforms into judgment. It reveals analytical rhythm, interpretative depth, and tolerance for complexity.

Card 6 — Sutra III: Emotional Governance Model

The regulation mechanism of feeling under pressure, clarifying resilience, suppression, expression, and recovery cycles.

Card 7 — Sutra IV: Authority Interaction Axis

The manner in which power is approached, resisted, assumed, or relinquished.

Card 8 — Sutra V: Executive Projection Index

The visible expression of leadership potential and influence mechanics.

Card 9 — Sutra VI: Internal Tension Framework

Recurring psychological friction that fuels advancement while creating hesitation.

Card 10 — Sutra VII: Amplification Leverage Points

Domains in which effort compounds disproportionately, yielding advantage.

Card 11 — Sutra VIII: Blind Spot Exposure

Unconscious tendencies capable of distorting otherwise stable strengths.

Card 12 — Sutra IX: Stress Absorption Capacity

Endurance thresholds under sustained demand.

Card 13 — Sutra X: Identity Stability Quotient

Continuity of character across cycles of expansion and contraction.
